Keep us steadfast in true and living faith and present us at last holy and blameless before you; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. FIRST LESSON

JEREMIAH 26:1-6

In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, the following word came from the LORD. 2 This is what the LORD says. Stand in the courtyard of the LORD's house, and speak to people from the cities and towns of Judah who have come to worship at the House of the LORD. Tell them everything I have commanded you to tell them. Do not hold back a single word. 3 Maybe they will listen, and everyone will turn from his evil way. Then I will relent and not bring about the disaster that I was planning because of the evil things they have done. 4 You are also to say this to him. This is what the LORD says. If you will not listen to me and follow my law, which I have set before you, 5 and if you do not listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I have sent to you again and again (but you have not listened), 6 then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make the name of this city a curse word for all the nations of the earth.

PSALM OF THE DAY

PSALM 90 (PAGE 99)

SECOND LESSON

2 THESSALONIANS 1:5-10

5 This is evidence of God's righteous verdict that resulted in your being counted worthy of God's kingdom, for which you also suffer. 6 Certainly, it is right for God to repay trouble to those who trouble you, 7 and to give relief to you, who are troubled along with us. When the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his powerful angels, 8 he will exercise vengeance in flaming fire on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. 9 Such people will receive a just penalty: eternal destruction away from the presence of the Lord and from his glorious strength, 10 on that day when he comes to be glorified among his saints, and to be marveled at among all those who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed.

VERSE OF THE DAY Alleluia. Watch therefore, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. Alleluia. (Matthew 24:42 RSV)

GOSPEL

LUKE 19:11–27

11 As they were listening to these things, Jesus went on to tell a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and the people thought that the kingdom of God was going to appear at once. 12 So he said, “A man of noble birth traveled to a distant country to receive a kingdom for himself and then to return. 13 He called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas. ‘Conduct business until I return,’ he said to them. 14 “But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to be king over us.’ 15 “When he returned after receiving the kingdom, he summoned the servants to whom he had given the money. He wanted to find out what they had gained by conducting business. 16 “The first one came to him and said, ‘Master, your mina has earned ten more minas.’ 17 “He said to him, ‘Well done, good servant! Because you were faithful in a very small matter, you will have authority over ten cities.’ 18 “The second one came and said, ‘Master, your mina has produced five more minas.’ 19 “So he said to him, ‘You will be over five cities.’ 20 “And another one came and said, ‘Master, here is your mina that I laid away in a piece of cloth. 21 For I was afraid of you, since you are a demanding man. You take what you did not deposit and reap what you did not sow.’ 22 “He said to him, ‘You wicked servant, I will judge you with your own words! You knew that I am a demanding man, taking what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow. 23

Then why did you not put my money in the bank? Then, when I returned, I could have collected it with interest!’ 24 “He said to those standing there, ‘Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has the ten minas.’ 25 “But they said to him, ‘Master, he already has ten minas!’ 26 ““I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. 27 Now as for those enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them, bring them here and kill them in front me.”

Have A Blessed Week!
