

Grade 1 & 2 News

December 22, 2025

What a joy-filled week we have ahead of us! As we prepare for our Christmas celebrations, let's give thanks to our Lord for fulfilling his promise of salvation by coming to earth as a little baby. We reflect and remember that his humble birth in Bethlehem was just the first step leading to his ultimate sacrifice on the cross. Keeping all this in mind, I pray you have a truly blessed CHRISTmas!

This short week we are reviewing the events around the birth of Jesus during our Word of God class.

Christmas Eve Service: Any students who are planning to be part of the Children's Christmas Eve Service with the St. John Sunday School children should be at church at 6:15pm on Wednesday. This special service starts on Christmas Eve at 6:30pm. All the St. John School children are invited to join the Sunday School Children in this special service.

No Spelling tests this week. 😊

On Tuesday, December 23, we are having our classroom CHRISTMAS PARTY! For our party day we are having a PAJAMA AND FUZZY SOCKS DAY! Students may wear their coziest (clean) pajamas and socks for the day at school. If they are Christmas themed, it's even better!

If you have not sent in your child's gift for the class gift exchange, yet, please make sure to bring it in tomorrow!

Dates to Keep in Mind:

Classroom Christmas Party and Early Release (1:00pm) – December 23

St. John Church Children's Christmas Eve Service – December 24, 6:30pm

Christmas Break – No School from December 24-January 2

School resumes on January 5

Have a wonderful week and a very happy CHRISTMAS!
