

3 – 5 Newsletter from Mrs. Arnold

Monday, October 22, 2018

End of First Quarter – Wednesday is the end of the quarter. Next week report cards will be handed out on Wednesday. Parents – Teacher Consultations will be Thursday. There will be a link on the website to pick a time at Sign-up Genius. If you cannot come at any of the scheduled times, let me know. We can make other arrangements.

Spelling – There is NO spelling this week because of the short week.

Reformation Day – Next Wednesday, October 31, is Reformation Day. It also happens to be Halloween when some people like to dress in costumes. Students in our room may wear costumes to school that day. Please make sure they have regular clothes as well. I reserve the right to make people change into regular clothes if the costumes are too distracting for themselves or others. There will NOT be a party.

Map Quiz – On Tuesday, October 30, we will be having a quiz on the West states. Grades 3 and 4 will have a word bank to use, but grade 5 will have to know how to spell the words on their own.

State Reports – The due date for notes is Monday, November 29. Please see that your child is working on the notes for their report. They can work on this at school, but I will not give special time for this.

Hymn Verse - There is a hymn verse due for Monday. I mention this since it is not a usual day for that.

Clothing Reminder – Though we may want to deny it, winter is coming. Hopefully, accumulating snow will hold off. I want to remind you that children need boots when there is snow on the ground, and I require snow pants.
