IV. School News-Principal

Conferences went well. Teachers also went to convention in Milwaukee a few weeks ago and was beneficial.

V. Classroom News-Teachers

Mrs. Rhode. All going well, working on Christmas Eve programs

Mrs. Myslik. All going well, had to do 2 nights of conferences this year due to volume. Field trip coming up in March. Going with Trinity to a play. K-2 both schools, will be taking a bus.

Mr. Arnold. Nothing exciting going on in our world. All are interested in the little house book. Thank you to the CEA for the purchase of the books last time, being put to great use.

Mr. List. Assigned a research project that horrified the kids in the classroom, will be interesting and fun to hear the presentations. Due December 15th. Kids have a lot of time to work on this.

VI. Pastor's Report

Pastor Myslik. Getting into the swing of teaching confirmation, very happy to be back into the day school teaching again. Enjoying it.

VII. Old Business

A. Parade was a huge success. Did give gift card to Mr. Polzin as a thank you for the water bottle donation.

B. Fall outing was a good turnout, great weather.

C. Air conditioners- Will get some information back to us by next meeting.

VIII. New Business

A. Advent Supper

December 6th. Jenn Thompson, Becky Seefeldt, Vanessa Lange, and Lana Baerenwald. Kids are also singing this night.

B. Cookie Sale

December 10th. Kelly Hartwig and Mrs. Arnold. Each family to donate 5 dozen cookies by the Friday before.

C. Winter Outing

Next meeting is January 16th, submit ideas to Mr. List ahead of time if you have any.

D. 50th Anniversary of education, this coming fall. Will look at this at next meeting, to determine needs moving forward.

IX. Other Business

A. Mrs Myslik- Zion is having 150th anniversary this summer, September 16th. The Zion members would like to not have to do the work at the event, looking to see if the CEA is interested in working the event, as a fundraising event, selling snacks, drinks ect. 1230-330.

X. Closing Prayer
