

Notes and News from Mrs. Myslik's K-2s

January 31, 2022

During Christ-light this week we will be learning about the Israelites taking over the Promised Land as they battled against different Cannanite kings and came to the rescue of their allies in Gibeon. God miraculously extended the sunlight that day, until the battle was over and the Israelites had won. Just as the Lord was with the Israelites as they took over the land, he is with us throughout our journey on this earth, too.

The Israelites had times where they were weak in their faith, and God used the difficulties with their enemies to draw them closer to him. God does this with us also. He uses the troubles of this world to refine us and bring us closer to himself. Thanks be to our Lord who has blessed us so richly...he brought us to faith, keeps us in faith, and will bring us to the Promised Land of Heaven one day.

Sunday Morning: Thank you to all the families who brought their children to sing yesterday. The children's voices were beautiful as they sang their praises and shared the Lord's Word in song! To God be the Glory!

Kindergarteners will finish their letter U books this week and soon will start stories and learning adventures the Superkids have. The students are reading stories now and doing a great job sounding out words and sentences!

Memory Work Calendar: The February Memory Work Calendars went home today. Please make sure to review your child's Bible passage or Hymn verse often, so they know these truths of God's Word in their hearts!

Our first graders are continuing their study about contractions. The three we are working on this week are slightly irregular ones: can't, won't, and don't. Since they don't follow the same rules as last week's contractions, we are learning them separately. The rest of the spelling words this week are Memory Words. Their next test will be on Friday, February 4.

Second Grade is learning about long a words spelled with irregular patterns. This includes "eigh," "ay," and "ange" word families. Their next spelling test will be on Friday, February 4.

Book Covers: Both first and second graders have a hard cover book to use for reading class. Please either purchase or make a book cover to protect their books from damage as they use them throughout the school year. Thank you!!

Today we celebrated being 100 Days Smarter! It is always a big milestone for us to make it to the 100th Day. We had a full day of projects, activities, snacks, and games that all focus on the number 100. I'm sure your children will tell you all about our fun Pirate Themed 100th Day Celebration!

Hot lunch this week is walking tacos.

Let's have a great week!!
