Last Day Tomorrow

Mrs. List's father passed away on Monday. The funeral is on Friday at 11:00am in Black Creek. Since the teachers will be attending the funeral, we will not be having school on Friday. I hope this is not an inconvenience for you Graduation is Thursday at 6:30pm. Grades K3 – 8 will be singing. Please be there by 6:15.

Hot Lunch

Hot Lunch this week is hot dogs that will be served for our picnic on Thursday. There is no charge for hot lunch this week.

Mission Offering

Lutherans for Life – Saving children from abortion

Last week's mission offering was $26.50. Our total for the 2nd Semester is $629.52. Thank you for your generous gifts!

2 Corinthians 9:7 – Each one should give what he has decided in his heart to give...for God loves a cheerful giver.

Summer Letter

Watch for a letter in the mail in July. This letter will remind you of the upcoming registration and have information about the 2018-2019 school year.

Have a Great Summer!

The faculty and staff at St. John wish you all a blessed summer with much fun and many memories. We look forward to serving you again in 2018-2019.

Did You Know?

Today is National Lucky Penny Day.

Years ago a penny was able to buy something. Today, due to inflation, the penny does not buy much of anything. The metal value and cost of minting pennies exceed their face value. Many nations have stopped minting equivalent value coins and efforts are being made to end the routine use of pennies in several countries including the United States.

- The Hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg, Russia, has so many cats on its grounds that it employs a "Press Secretary to the Cats."
- There's a town in Poland where everything is decorated with paintings of flowers.
- In Queensland, Australia, it's illegal to own a pet rabbit unless you're a magician.
