Mission Offering

Our second semester mission offering will be going to the family of Finneas Bater, the 2 year old son of a WELS pastor in Thousand Oaks, CA. Finneas was diagnosed with medulloblastoma, a form of brain cancer. He has been going through numerous chemotherapy treatments over the last few months. Our donations will help the family pay for the treatments that Finneas needs. The mission offering from March 10th was $37 bringing our total semester offering to $325.26. Mission offerings will be collected during our chapel service on Fridays. Thank you for your heartfelt gifts.

2 Corinthians 9:11 – You will be made rich in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.

WELSSA Site Visit

Next week will be a busy and exciting one at St. John. For the last two years, the faculty, staff, Board of Education, and St. John church and school families have been working on WELSSA accreditation. If you remember, last school year we had families fill out surveys regarding different aspects of the ministry at St. John. This was one part of the whole picture that is finishing up next week. You will also notice new mission statement banners, which now hang in both the school and the church. They will guide many decisions looking towards the future ministry at St. John.

The end result of this accreditation process will be a site visit next week March 29-31. St. John will be visited by a group of 3 current and former educators who will be evaluating many different aspects of our school. They will be interviewing teachers, board members, and even some parents to help them get a feel for all the wonderful things being done at St. John. They will also be reviewing our self-study document, which includes 237 separate standards. We will find out on Friday afternoon whether or not we have passed the accreditation. Please pray that all the hard work being done here at St. John results in a passing score when all is said and done. If you have any questions about the visit or the accreditation process, feel free to reach out to Mr. Aguilar, Pastor Sargent, or Hannah Langebartels.
