Samantha (Brandt) List was born in Appleton, WI, and attended Immanuel Lutheran School in Waupaca from Kindergarten through 8th grade. She then attended high school at Fox Valley Lutheran in Appleton. In high school she played volleyball, and participated in acapella choir, show choir, and theater.

Following high school she attended Martin Luther College in New Ulm, MN, and graduated in 1999. After graduation, she taught 5th grade for one year at St. Paul's Lutheran in Algoma, WI. She married Lance List in the summer of 2000, and moved to Arizona where she taught 2nd and 3rd grade for 2 years. After the birth of their daughter in 2002, Sam stayed home to be a mom. In 2006, Sam and Lance moved to Cudahy, WI, shortly after the birth of their son.

In 2011, Sam took a call to teach language arts for the 5th-8th grades at St. Jacobi Lutheran in Greenfield, WI, where she taught for four years.

After moving "up north" to Pound, WI in 2015, Sam taught during the 2nd semester of the 2015-2016 school year at Trinity Lutheran in Marinette. The following year she accepted a call to teach 6th-8th grade during the afternoons at St. John and teaches there currently.

Sam and Lance's daughter Sydney, recently graduated from St. John and will be attending high school at Coleman. Their son Jack is in 6th grade at St. John. The Lists have several pets and enjoy hiking the area waterfalls.
